Words for Witness

"Praise God, Jesus is still on the Throne!" No matter what the circumstance, I can hear these reassuring words from co-worker and dearest sister-friend, Lillie Epps. After all, it puts my "messes" in the right perspective.

So, when life throws you a curve, try these words on for size. We guarantee it'll lower your blood pressure, bring you peace, and return your focus where it needs to be—at the foot of the cross! Think about it... The Witness Committee

"The mind of sinful man is death, but the mind controlled by the Spirit is life and peace..." Romans 8:6

Thanks from DUCO!

DUCO is so grateful for the Warwick Memorial Youth and their recent food drive and for all Warwick's members who have so faithfully helped stock this ministry's pantry. Though our pantry supply and number of requests for assistance fluctuate, we can honestly say that DUCO has never had to turn someone away for lack of food. Thank you so much for helping us achieve the mission goal of feeding those in need.

Wellness Series: ANGER MANAGEMENT (Tonight, 6:30-8PM)

What does it mean “to be angry, yet sin not?” Anger is an emotion that is neither right nor wrong...it simply is. So, how do we learn to manage this prevalent emotion? This workshop will explore what anger is, what it is often a cover for, and what we can do to manage this emotion so that it will not hurt us...or hurt others. Come prepared to explore what triggers your anger and be ready to be honest about what your anger means to you.

Presenter: Rev. Jennifer P. Smith, Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist is employed at the Peninsula Pastoral Counseling Center.

All workshops, Sunday evenings from 6:30-8:00 p.m., are open to the public. Invite your friends. Childcare is provided. Please call the church office prior to the workshop to register names and ages of your children.

Do You Have Questions About Prayer?

Our Sunday evening Bible studies focusing on the Christian Spiritual Life continue this month. We will begin a four-part series in April focusing on prayer. Remember, you don't have to come to every single class—come when you can and share and learn! Classes this month will meet on April 17th and 24th from 6:00-7:30 p.m. in the Aldersgate Classroom. Come and experience the transforming power of prayer!

From Pastor Amanda and Jack

Jack and I want to thank you from the bottom of our hearts for the beautiful baby shower on April 10th. Everything was just perfect, and we thoroughly enjoyed every minute of the afternoon. We are so very thankful for each and every one of you, and we truly appreciate your many gifts and expressions of love and support. We will treasure the memories for a lifetime. You are a wonderful church family, and we love you all very much! Grace, peace and love, Pastor Amanda and Jack

Texts for Anthems

Help Us Accept Each Other

1. Help us accept each other as Christ accepted us; teach us as sister, brother, each person to embrace.
2. Teach us to care for people, for all, not just for some; to love them as we find them, or, as they may become.
3. Be present, Lord, among us, and bring us to believe; we are ourselves accepted and meant to love and live.

So Much We Have

1. So much we have, more than we need; all of God's people we must feed.
That man could be our father, sadness in his eyes; over there our mother, hushing our hungry cries.
2. So much we have, more than we need; all of God's people we must feed.
Cries of hungry people meeting ears that won't hear. Why not try to listen to learn the dreams and fears?
3. So much we have, more than we need; all of God's people we must feed.
Though they all seem like strangers, let this song be our creed: All together one family;
words of Christ we heed.
So much we have, more than we need; all of God's people we must feed. Feed my lambs.
