The First Sermon

The first sermon preached each Sunday is not by the pastors but by you.

You preach a message of good cheer when you say "Good Morning" to those you meet as you are parking, or in the hallways or classrooms.

You preach a message of welcome when you slide over in the pew instead of forcing others to squeeze in front of you.

You preach a message of hope and joy when you sing the hymns.

You preach a message about the power of prayer when you help a visitor find his place in the Hymn Book.

You preach a message of respect when you listen attentively while the anthem is sung.

You preach a message of love when you smile and say "Hello" and introduce yourself to a guest.

You preach a message about the importance of the scriptures when you listen carefully to the day's text.

Many messages are preached before the pastor stands to share the sermon. If your message is positive, faithful and consistent, then the message from the pastor will be more effective.

Come to Church this Sunday and every Sunday, be prepared to preach your best sermon.

Text for Anthem Living Water

I will give to you living water from the well of endless life.
As the deer longs for cooling streams, so do I bring you peace. Peace I bring to you.
Whosoever shall drink of the water I give shall thirst no more, I say.
For I say unto you that the water I give shall be in you a well of endless life!

I will give to you living water from the well of endless life.
As the deer longs for cooling streams, so do I bring you peace.
Peace I give to you, I will give to you living water.
